

APPENDIX B - Auction 904 Short-Form Application Consortium Agreement Summary

Armstrong Telephone Company-Northern Division (ATC-ND) is identified as the applicant and the bidding entity for the consortium in the Rural Digital Opportunity Fund Phase I auction - Auction 904.

The consortium consists of the following entities:

- ✓ Armstrong Telephone Company-Northern Division (ATC-ND) – ATC-ND is an incumbent local exchange carrier (ILEC) operating company in Harrisville, WV.
- ✓ Armstrong Telecommunications, Inc. (ATI) – ATI is a competitive local exchange carrier (CLEC) provider in Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Ohio, Maryland, West Virginia and New York.
- ✓ Armstrong Telephone Company-Pennsylvania (ATC-PA) – ATC-PA is an ILEC operating company in Clinton, PA.
- ✓ Armstrong Telephone Company North (ATC-N) - (ATC-N) is an ILEC operating company in Duke Center, PA.
- ✓ Armstrong Telephone Company-West Virginia (ATC-WV) – ATC-WV is an ILEC operating company in Hamlin, WV.
- ✓ Armstrong Telephone Company-Maryland (ATC-MD) – ATC-MD is an ILEC operating company in Rising Sun, MD
- ✓ Armstrong Telephone Company-New York (ATC-NY) – ATC-NY is an ILEC operating company in Addison, NY.

ATC-ND, ATI, ATC-PA, ATC-N, ATC-WV, ATC-MD and ATC-NY desire to form a consortium, as permitted under the FCC's rules, to allow the Parties to file a single Short-Form application, FCC Form 183, to bid in the Auction. All parties are wholly owned by Armstrong Holdings, Inc.